Soft Launch Planned on September 12th

PHOENIX, AZ- August 14, 2013 – Career Connectors, a 501(c)(3) organization, is expanding their mission to help those in career transition by adding a third location in North Scottsdale to the monthly rotation. Currently meeting two times monthly at Phoenix Baptist Church in Phoenix and Central Christian Church in Gilbert – Career Connectors will now meet one time monthly at Highlands Church on Pinnacle Peak Road in North Scottsdale (map).

The keynote presentation, Getting Hired by a “Best” Company will be delivered by one of the Valley’s Human Resource icons, Lee Vikre. The three hiring companies, Intel, Vanguard and Charles Schwab, are all recognized as one of Arizona’s best places to work.

“For the last two years, I have attended Career Connectors meetings to share information about career opportunities at Schwab. The prospective candidates who have come through Career Connectors have been well-aligned with our need for talented professionals with a passion for helping others,” commented Shannon Feltes Grimes, Talent Attraction Manager for Charles Schwab and Company.

“Career Connectors has been serving the Southeast Valley and Phoenix Metro areas for four years; we are thrilled to now serve the Valley’s North community. There is an extensive professional-level talent pool in Scottsdale, as well as many desirable hiring companies. Career Connectors’ goal is to provide professional resources and personal hope for those in career transition; and at the same time help hiring companies meet great talent for their open positions,” stated Jessica Pierce, Co-Founder and Executive Director of Career Connectors.

“At Highlands, we want to help others find ultimate purpose and significance in their work. That’s why we are excited to host Career Connectors. It’s a practical way to help those going through the challenge of career transition,” declared Mark Yule, Pastor of Adults at Highlands Church.

For the Scottsdale event on September 12th, networking starts at 8:30am, and programming is scheduled 9am until noon. Register to receive all event information.
